New Lincoln Painting Exhibited at Museum Here

THE first inauguration of Abraham Lincoln, whose birthday anniversary was Wednesday, is the subject of a new painting by Albert O. Tiemann of the public museum here. The painting is now on exhibit in the introductory hall at the museum. In the background of the picture are seen Edwin M. Stanton (left), Lincoln's secretary of war, and W. H. Seward, secretary of state, who was so affected by the ceremony that he wept.
